

CELOTIO.

NEW YORK, MONDAY, JULY 23, 1888.

PEARL ETYNGE ANNOUNCES THAT CHIARA WILL NOT HANG.

Convicted Woman Weeps When She Hears the News-Mr. Howe Says that the Gayerner Was Influenced by the Lega Aspect of the Case and Not by Petitions.

Although the official intimation that Chiara Cignarale, instead of hanging by the neck till she is dead, will wear out the rest of her existence in prison walls has not yet been received, Pearl Eytinge called on Chiara last night to tell her that the Governor had put forth the arm of executive elemency to stay the haugman's halter.

She was still in bed, but there was an air of neatness about her and the cell, which was a token of her greater peace of mind.

A neatly folded handkerchief bound her forehead, a nightgown of snowy white had a coquettish line of lace running down the front. She wiped her parched lips occasionally with an embroidered cambric hand-kerchief. Out of the snowy whiteness her dark eyes, black hair and sallow cheeks had stomach and her sore throat seemed to oc-cupy her thoughts more than the commuting of her sentence.

"That good lady come last night to tell me the news that I might sleep. I no sleep well for weeks. I think most of my poor child; no father, no mother. God help her." As seen as official news of the commuta-

The reporter saw Mr. Howe at his office. He was resplendent in a suit of navy blue sarge, a jockey cap of enamel and diamonds glittered in his white silk tie, and a summer stude warmed the fringe of white hair that altorned his upper lip. The smile deepened when the reporter alluded to Miss Eytinge's success as a petitioner.

"Gov. Hill is a lawyer, and what has movel him is the opinion of Jack Andrews and the Court of Appeals that this was a case for executive cleinency. The petition first handed him had 30,000 names on it. He said to me:

to me:

"'Mr. Howe, half of those signatures would be there if it was a request for their own execution. They sign without hardly knowing what it is for!

"To-day I shall receive news from Albany.
The official intimation will come to me. continued Mr. Howe, "and I can tell what it

Mrs. McAuliffe, the robust and genial ma-received no news whatever on the point. A special despatch from Albany to The Evening World states that Gov. Hill has not made public his decision.

THE EVENING WORLD reporter called on was so.

"Did he speak of this as a fact of which "Did he speak of this as a fact of which he was distinctly cognizant, or as a hearsay, or well-founded hope?"
"He spoke of it as something which he knew certainly," said Miss Eytinge.

Gov. Hill Won't Talk About it.

ALBANY, July 23.—Gov. Hill said to-day. when asked about the report that he had decided to commute the death sentence of Mrs. Chiara Cignarale, that it was news to him. He declined to talk on the subject.

Maud S. Trots a Fast Mile. Johnny Murphy drove Maud S. a mile in 2.12% on the Ficetwood track this morning. The Queer of the Tort's best mile was made in 2.08% at Gen ville, O., on July 30, 1885. She was accompanied on this occasion by a running mate.

The Quotations.

Constitution of the consti	777	0076	0.00
Chaspeake & Ohlo	12	12	12
Chicago & Northwest	110	11014	110
Cale., Mil. & St. Paul	70	7 32	65.3
Coio., Mil, & St. Paul pfd	107%	10812	10:1
Colorado Coal & Iron	9514	20.34	853
Del., Lack, & Western	36.14	1941	1831
The Lack & Property	114	11110
Delaware & Budson	414	11436	1185
East Tenu., Va. & Ga. 1st pfd East Tenu., Va. & Ga. 1st pfd East Tenu., Va. & Ga. 2d pfd Lypisylle & Nasbville	1034	1074	11/3
East Tenn., Va. & Ga. lat pfd	70%	79%	703
East Tenn., Va. & Ga. 2d pfd	2612	2632	26
Louisville & Nashville	60+2	6936	60
lake citors. Louis. New Alb. & Uhi	W255	9.32	924
Lonie Ness Alb. & Ob.	247 44	9734	971
Manhattan Consol	Stot La	6612	200
Mich. Central	0024	9114	907
Milon. Central	27.78	0129	610
Missouri Pacific	1176	1.0	2.13
Dilegouri, B. anna & Tex.	14	14	14
N. Y. & New England	433%	4314	43
N. Y., Lake Eria & Western	2656	26%	263
N. Y., Lake Krie & Western pid	6036	6016	603
N. Y. Hung, & Western ofd	287.54	28.2 54	313
Nortalk & Western	1012	1836	183
Norfolk & Western pfd	BOU	6412	Bus
Wantham Beating	200.4	27.05	263
Nurthern Pacific	2076	20.50	A63
Northern Pacific ofd	0024	99.74	Des
Ohio & Mississippi	2076	2074	201
Ore. Railway & Navigation	0174	1943	14.5
Oregon Transcontinental	2056	263	243
Orsgon Short Line	27	2%	27
racitio Mail.	3536	35%	2853
Philadelphia & Reading	6142	63	631
Michmond & West Point Ter	9642	930	465
Hich, & W. P. Ter. pfd	7415	770	94
St. Vanna & Gan Constitution	9012	303	400
St. Louis & San Francisco,	110.4	277	30
ht. Louis & Ban Fran. ptd	00	0814	- 68
Tuzas Pacific	25.54	2376	235
Tenn. Coal & Iron	26.52	26.5	990

RECORD OF THE GIANTS. The Following Shows the Result of Their Western Trip.

GAMES LOST. .... 18; Detroit ..... 6; Indianapolis July 12-New York.
July 14-New York.
July 19-New York. 1: Chleago.... 1: Philadelphia. PITCHERS' RECORD. CATCHERS' RECORD. BARNED BUNS.

Games Scheduled for To-Day. LEAGUE

Baltimore at Cleveland.

Balls, Bats and Spikes.

Who says Mutrie has not handled the nine in masterly manner? Supt. Arthur Bell, of the Polo Grounds, think the boys will land the flag.

Glasscock met trouble when he tried his tactics on George at Indianapolis. Let New York this afternoon show the boys how it appreciates good ball playing.

The Giants are speculating as to how they will look in the new black lersey uniforms. "New York" in white letters will adorn their breasts. Capt. Morrill and his men are at the Gran Central. John is not discouraged because th Bostons won but four of the fourteen games playe on their present trip. He denies the stories of trouble in the team. Clarkson and Kelly will be it the points this afternoon.

COMMISSIONER PURROY'S FUTURE.

Will It Be with a Third House or with th Tammany Chiefs ?

The County Democracy leaders do no tackle very kindly to Fire Commissioner Purroy's letter resigning from that organiza

Purroy are not relished. It is said that Police Justice Maurice J.

Power, to whom Purroy's letter was addressed, is preparing an answer. A friend of Judge Power said to-day:
"The Judge can write a good letter. If he writes a reply to Purroy it will be a corker. Perhaps Jim Fitzgerald may put in two or three pet phrases. Jim is very sar-castic."

Police Justice Andrew J. White will be the next man to break away from the County Democracy. Mr. Edward Kearney has already given notice that he will resign. His letter may be made public in a day or two. Some of the County Democracy leaders have an idea that Purroy and his friends will organize a third machine to act as a tender to Tammany Hall. There are others, however, who prophesy that Purroy will shortly be found in full feather with the wigwam chiefs.

BUFFALO OR SARATOGA?

Both Fighting Hard for the Democratic had to-day at the headquarters of the Democratic and Republican National committees. The carpenters are busy at the Republican headquarters at 91 Fifth avenue, and the building will not be ready for active cam-paign business for several days. The Demo-cratic Campaign Committee has already begun to send out documents. The Executive Committee of the Democratic Campaign Committee has already begun to send out documents.

The Executive Committee of the Democratic State Committee is in session this afternoon at the Hoffman House. The Campaign Committee will be in working order in a few days. The headcuarters of the State Committee will be at the Hoffman House.

There is rivalry between Buffalo and Saratoga for the Democratic State Convention. Buffalo is making another effort to capture a Democratic Convention, and the friends of Buffalo say that a majority of the State Committee have promised to vote for Buffalo. The Saratoga people, however, are fighting for the watering place and are smilling at the boasts of the Buffalo people.

Patally Hurt by a Train.

ispecial to the evening world. Haceensack, N. J., July 23, -Train No. 2, on the New Jersey and New York Railroad, leaving Hackensack at 5. 97 for New York, struck a man named George Howard, of Woodridge, and smashed his skull. The man worked for L. H. Olmstead, of Corons. He cannot recover.

At Yonkers To-Morrow. (SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) YONKERS, July 23. - Entries at Yonkers for Tue day, July 24:

Trade Dollar	170 Bloss   1   12   Hardeash   1   1   15   Weaver   1   1   15   Bradbura   1   1   15   Manie B   1   1   1   1   1   1   1   1   1
Second Race For b	th.:
Pocasset	110 Blenbeim
Third Race Five-	110 Matins 11

112 Lizzie M.

BASEBALLISTS IN COURT

BURDOCK AND O'BRIEN PROVE DRAWING CARDS THIS MORNING.

Brooklyn Turns Out to Henr the Charge Girls a Plonty.

hour tardy in his arrival at the court-room this morning and he found the chamber

There were baseball players, baseball enthusiasts and patrons of the national game. There were a couple of hundred of the youth of the City of Churches, and there were as famous.

The latter were in holiday attire, and as soon as each bevy entered there was a whis-pering and a careful survey of the rest of the audience.

Eyes invariably settled finally upon two stalwart specimens of manhood who sat in the rear seat modestly making themselves as small as possible.

Then the girls would gaze eagerly at the young men, the latter would blush, the girls would whisper together and then they would giggle.

William.

Darby received most attention, for he is one of the Brooklyn boys who doesn't pose as a bridegroom.

There is but one entrance to Judge Massey's court, and the prisoners enter here and must traverse the length of the court room to the far corner at the announcement that a batch of prisoners were coming, and twenty-seven crestfallen specimens of humanity slouched down the aisle to the pen in single file.

About midway the file was a tall, awkward young fellow. When he got halfway down the aisle he stopped and surveyed the aud-"Go on there," commanded the officer. But the fellow turned back and made as if he

But the fellow turned back and made as it ne would take a soat.

"Here, you, there! Go on with the rest," shouted another officer, and another shoved him in the direction of the pen.

"Hold on," protested the fellow. "I ain't one. I'm all right."

"Oh, we know that dodge. You can't fool us. You want to sneak out," said another officer, knowingly, and the young man was forced into the pen.

forced into the pen.

Then the officers were all summoned, and looked the man over. They finally con-cluded that he was not a prisoner, and he was liberated.

The experience had taken all the tuck out

The experience had taken all the tuck out of him, and he slunk out of the court-room, while the audience laughed.

But that has nothing to do with Darby O'Brien and Jack Burdock.

They were supported by McMasters, Mays, Billy Holbert and Manager Byrne, of the Brooklyns, and John Brice, of this city, counsel for the Brooklyn Baseball Club, while Lipman Pike, who used to play centre field for the Atlantics a dozen years ago, but is now a dealer in furnishing goods and a stanch enthusiast, was deeply interested in the two "stars." the two "stars."
O'Brien and Burdock were arrested at the

was not in court the case was set down for on Staten Island, it is difficult to see how a Brooklyn court can have jurisdiction, and Darby says the prosecution is malicious, as Justice Massey's term of office expires with the year, and the other day he resolved to dispose of all old warrants. The Burdock complaint had never been pushed and the warrant lay unserved. An office arrested Jack Burdock on that old warrant. Both men were paroled on the promise of Manager Byrne to have them in court to-day.

Miss Lillie, too, was missing in court to-day, and Justice Massey set this case down for Sept. 1 also, and both defendants left court, followed by the four or five hundred admirers, male and female, who had gathered in their honor.

Burdock says there is nothing in the charge against him, but will not particularize.

Darby O'Brien says Mrs. Jones kept his dog for him while he was off with the Mets. She got attached to the pet, and didn't want to give it up. He went after the dog. She refused to let him have her. So he quietly put a string on Beauty's neck and led her away. She was and is his dog.

Objected to the Dressmaker's Bedclothes. ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.

TAUNTON, Mass., July 28. -O. L. Merriam, a dry goods dealer on Main street, entered a com goods dealer on main street, entered a com-plaint with the City Marshal to-day against a lady who occupies rooms as a dressmaker over his store, for maintaining a nuisance in covering his sign and obstructing, his show window daily by a display of bedding from her windows. A sort of petty warfare has been going on for some time, and when the bedding happened to overhang the store window the hose used in wash-ing the windows has been generously applied. Ing the windows has been generously applied.

The storekeeper says that the daily display has subjected him to muca annoyance and ridicule, but he stood it till his neighbor commesced to hang part of her bedstead itself out of her window, and then he thought it time to enter a complaint.

Minister Hume Arrested.

BAY SHORE, L. 1., July 23. -Rev. J. C. Hume, BAY SHORE, L. I., July 23.—Rev. J. C. Hume, pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Babylon, was arrested this morning on the charge of assaulting Beckman Bergen, a member of his congregation. He broke his cane over the lad's nead. The affair grew out of an act of the young man which was considered as an insult to the preacher. The case has caused intense excitement in Babylon.

An Extraordinary Phenomenon.

OARSMAN PILKINGTON'S CHARGES.

He Says Goepfert Had a Friend Betting Money Against the Pair.

The members of the Metropolitan Rowing Club of the Harlem are determined to investigate the Goepfert case. A special meeting of the club will be held in the club-house on the Harlem to-morrow night. The programme has been framed, and a committee of five will be appointed to inquire into and report | Fifty Accidents on One Comon the charges.

Goepfert denies that he was engaged in any crooked scheme.

James Pikington, the streke of the boat does not believe a word his late partner says The big oarsman was seen this morning by THE EVENING WORLD reporter and he said As the bours go by the evidence of Goepfert's guilt seems, in my eyes, to grow stronger. I can produce innumerable wit-nesses to prove that that fellow said repeat-edly that we could not possibly lose the race. "There is no denying that fact. Now he comes out in a morning paper of yesterday in which he says that I am too old to row and that he never expected to win the contest. I wonder what any right-minded oarsman would think of these two statements? I inwould think of these two statements? I intend to prove, when the proper time arrives, if called upon by the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen, that all the money that was put out against our chances in that race was laid by the bosom friend of Gospfert and that Gospfert was the 'capper' for this friend, inasmuch as he went about the hotels of Sunbury trying to get his friends, particularly Bob Culcorn and Billy Oliver, to take up the wagers which this bosom friend made at the ridiculous odds of 100 to 80.

"The suspicions of Oliver were aroused, particularly when he learned that the 'friend' had never seen a boat race and that he knew nothing of the merits of the three crews entered. We were dead favorites on the pools, you see, and the 'friend' had no difficulty in finding willing backers of our chances.

difficulty in finding willing backers of our chances.

"The morning after all the money was laid and the day after Goepfert had finished second to Psotla, of Cornell College, in the senior single scull race, Goepfert went to the old sawmill in which the majority of the contestants' boats were stored and found his shell with a big hole in the centre.

He appeared surprised, but he made no inquiries as to who had cut the craft. He opened my eyes, for by finishing second, Goepfert had the privilege to start in the finals. He returned to the hotel and then he told that he believed Donohue, of Toronto, had cut the boat in the interest of his brother, who was entered in the same list with Gopfert. I would not listen to such an accusawho was entered in the same list with Gop-fort. I would not listen to such an accusa-tion, particularly as I believed that I could iay my hands on the boat cutter if I chose.

'That afternoon I learned that Goepfert had a friend out betting money against our chances. At first I determined to say nothing to him until we got to the starting line, but I reasoned that if I waited until then Goep-fert might accidentally fall overboard and my friends' money would be sunk.

my friends' money would be sunk.

"So I then blurted out what I had to say, and I told him that if he entered the boat he would have to pull a square oar, or I would pitch him overboard.

"These results are the same of the "." These people say you are trying to sell out, Goepfort, said I. and if you are honest in your in your intentions I want you to come forward and call these maligners by their proper names.'

The next thing I heard of Mr. Goepfert was The next thing I heard of Mr. Goepfert was to learn from your paper's correspondent at Suntury that he had run away.

"I don't wish to say anything additional just at present, but when this young follow is arraigned before the National Association, as he certainly will be, I'll tell all I know and produce good witnesses to back me up."

QUINN BREAKS IN.

The Master Workman Successfully Assaults the Barricaded Castle of 49. The troubles in District Assembly 49 wer enewed to-day. Early this morning the Board of Trustees had heavy padlocks put on the doors of the Master Workman's room on the first floor of Pythagoras Hall and on the Secretary's door on the third floor. Secretary Kunze called early and, finding the door padlocked, he went

About 12.20 this afternoon Master Workman Quinu came to the hall, and, finding in, gress barred to his office, he sent a man for a cold chisel and an iron bar.

gress barred to his office, he sent a man for a cold chisel and an iron bar.

The man got the tools and the Master Workman, followed by Timothy P. Quinn, William McNair and an Evening Wonld reporter, went into the entrance hall to wait for him to open the door.

The cold-chisel was being vigorously applied, when John Nolan, who is in charge of the building, came from the cigar store adjoinining and rushed up to the man and ordered him to stop.

Waster Workman [Quinn caught Nolan by the throat and told him to stand back, that he wanted to get into his office.

Nolan ran out of the front door for a policeman, but could not find one in time to prevent the man from opening the door.

Quinn's op onents heard of the breaking open of the rooms and began to take steps to put a stop to further assaults on their castle.

put a stop to further assaults on their castle.

In the Quinn camp it was said that no more funds from the local assemblies would be tuaned over by District Secretary Kunze to the Treasurer. Kunze has been made treasurer for the Quinn faction. High Liceuse Unconstitutional.

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. ELIZABETH, N. J., July 23. -It is authoritatively stated in legal circles at Elizabeth that the Supreme Court of New Jersey, on the points raised by Gov. Green, had declared the High Lloense law unconstitutional. The counton of the Court has been filed with the clerk and will not be made Has Gibson Gone to Canada?

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] PITTSBURG, July 23. - William M. Gibson, trusted employee of Melon Brothers, bankers, and the Treasurer of the Park Avenue Presbyterian Church, East End, has mysterionaly disappeared and is now supposed to be in Canada. His books and accounts are being examined.

Local News Condensed. The body of a man about twenty-eight years old was found floating in the East River at pler 48 this

While at work at 8s Ann street Frank Cochran, hitty years old, and residing at Rehway, N. J., eil down the halchway and was instantly killed. George Bristow, aged forty years, of 562 Third wenne, fell downstairs at 76 Broad street, where he was employed as a waiter. His skull was frac-

An unknown Italian, about thirty-five years old, was instantly killed this morning at One Hundred and Sixty-first street and Fourth avenue, by a south-bound train of the New York and Hariem Railroad. Raitroad.

Fire this morning in the tailor shop of Joseph Stretch & Co., on the first floor of the four-story brick building, 383 West Twenty-auxth street, damaged the stock and furniture and building to the amount of $1,000.

To Coroner Eidman were reported the following cases of sudden deaths: William Emblit, forty years old, 36 Clinton place; Jane Bowers, 55 years, 170 Greene street; Emil Lenlewski, six weeks, 608 East Tolrieenth street; Prank Marone, forty-two years, 82 Essex street.

DRIVE THEM AWAY.

Cars Advancing.

pany's Lines Last Year.

Railroad People Attack the Press-Mr. Lovy Is Facetions on the Witness Stand

THE EVENING WORLD office voice this demand, and thousands of citizens are determined to remove them. When the officers of the companies have

The inquest into the cause of death of Mrs. Sophia Levy, who was run over by a Twenty third street bobtail car, near Eighth avenue, on July 10, was continued by Coroner Mesthe corporation whose officials are under the charge of manslaughter in causing the prosecuting the entire public for conspiracy in the "no-conductor-no-fare" crusade.

Supt. George Terry, of the Twenty-third Street Railway Company, was the first wit-

It appeared from his evidence that he has It appeared from his evidence that he has no supervision of the drivers of the road nor the despatching of the cars. Secretary Mc-Lean, he said, had full charge of these matters and instructs the drivers in their duties.

Mr. Terry said that when an accident occurs on the road it is reported to the office, and a record is kept of all casualties.

The witness took occasion to air his opinated of reversely a research is a constitution of reversely in essential.

'About corporations?" inquired Mr. Mac

dona.

About fishermen and their catchers," was the reply of facetious Mr. Terry.

Mr. Terry testified that Duffy is still driving one of the juggernaut cars of the Twenty.

"No man who has not had previous ex perience with horses is employed on the Twenty-third street line," said the witness. Assistant District-Attorney Macdona doubted that experience of that sort was suf-

"It is Mr. Connors's business to look atter these accidents," said the witness. "He has general instructions to investigate every accident, no matter how trivial, and report to the office. He is retained as a lawyer in the interest of the company to procure affidavits and the names of witnesses."

Mr. McLean said that before he went to the scene of the accident he examined car No. 6, which had been brought to the depot, to ascertain if there was any trouble with the brake or other machinery.

A record of all secidents on the road, the witness said, is under his charge.

on the Twenty-third street railway system

ness of his clients.

Assistant District-Attorney Macdona said that, as the company's record of the accident by which Mrs. Levy lost her life was in the book sought to be brought into evidence, it was cabled to be produced by the conduction of the second of the second book sought to be brought into evidence, it must be produced.

"It is necessary to know if this company, which is conducting a perilous railway system, is responsible for this woman's death, and this book can give the jury some light on that subject," insisted Mr. Macdona.

Coroner Messemer here interrupted the debate by saying: "I rule that that book in its entirety must be produced. We are here to ascertain whether this driver or the system is responsible for this woman's death, and that book may assist us materially."

Col. Dennison refused to produce the book until further consultation with the Company's attorney.

with further consultation with the Company's attorney.

With regard to his conversation with Driver Duffy at the Twentieth street station-house Mr. McLean said: "I told Duffy to talk with no one about the accident excepting to myself and to Lawyer Conners. Duffy said that he was looking abstal at the time of the accident, that his horse was walking and the ear-brake was half set.

He told me that he was not making change as the time of the accident. He had been making change at Seventh avenue, where the last of his two passengers get on.

"The passengers were two ladies. I have

The Crusade Against the Bobtail

Evening World" Urging the Extermination of the System-Twenty-third Street city. Hundreds of letters received daily at and will be accomplished.

There was the usual array of counsel for eningly to THE EVENING WORLD reporter of third street line.

A great deal of time was taken up with this witness in detailing the workings of the cashbox system, which had little or no relevancy to the case.

Secretary Thomas H. McLean, of the Twenty-third Street Railway Company, testified that he keeps the minute-book of the Board of Directors, employs all drivers and conductors and give them their instructions. A driver whose references are good is placed upon a car for a day or two to break him in under the instruction of a competent driver. If he is reported to be competent and has made affidavit to the fact that he has had previous experience with horses he is had previous experience with horses he is Duffy, the driver of the car which ran over Mrs. Levy, he said, was employed by him in November, 1887. He came well recommended, having had experience as a driver for a house in East Fortieth street, and has not been laid off since his first employment, excepting during the blizzard.

With reference to the report of the Levy accident Mr. McLean said that Charles E.

"It is Mr. Connors's business to look atte on the Twenty-third street railway system during the past year.

Assistant District-Attorney Macdona insisted on an answer, the Coroner required it to be made, and the witness said that he thought there had been as many as fifty accidents, but he qualified his answers by saying that these accidents were of all characters, to persons and property, and on the Bleecker street line, as well as on the Twenty third street road.

Bleecker street line, as well as on the Twenty-third street road.

Coroner Messemer directed that the book be produced for the benefit of the jury.

Col. Dennison said that he was not prepared to say that the railway company will produce the record of accidents and allow a Coroner's jury, which has no right to inquire into any accident excepting where death results to drag a scoop net through the land.

ing and the car-brake was inif set.

"Mrs. Levy, he told the, pitched against the horse back of the collar and fell, and the car had run over her before he could stop it. He told me that he was not making change as the time of the accident. He had been tried to ascertain who they are, but have cen unable to learn their names."

A FREE SPECTACULAR SHOW.

Regarding instructions to drivers the wit ness said :
 "All drivers are told to be particularly careful to avoid accidents and to this end are ordered to drive slow "

The schedule time for the two miles' drive, The schedule time for the two mines arrive, the witness said, was twenty-two minutes. In the matter of making change, he said that drivers are directed to be sure that the track is clear ahead of him before turning about with the change, which is usually, he said, passed back through the cash door without turning his back.

Car-Driver O'Couner Held. John O'Connor, the Second avenue car-drived Guiry, at Second avenue and Fifty-fifth street, or Saturday afternoon, was committed by Justice White in the Yorkville Police Court this morning to await the action of the Grand Jury.

turning his back.

GOOD HORSES, GOOD PRICES. The Sale of Erdenheim Yearlings at the Exchange This Morning.

At the American Horse Exchange, Fiftieth street and Broadway, this morning, the horses known as the Erdenheim yearlings, belonging to L. & J. E. Kittson, were sold at auction under the direction of Col. S. D. In the opinions of those present who were thoroughly posted in borseflesh, it was the biggest sale of the season thus far, the stock sold attracting large crowds of buyers and making good prices, as the following sales will indicate. making good prices, as the following sales will indicate:

Brown colt, by Reform (brother to Hayward), sold to Geo, F. Johnson for $1,200; bay colt, by Alarm, sold to Geo, F. Johnson, $1,225; chestnut colt, by imp. Woodlands, (of the Parole family), sold to Peter Walton for $575; chestnut filly, by Reform (half brother to Iroquois), sold to R. W. Walden for $1,400; brown filly, by Reform, sold to Capt. W. M. Conner for $675.

DONOVAN WOULD MEET DEMPSEY.

But the Nouparell Declares He Wants Nothing of the Retired Champion. Prof. Mike Donovan has declared himself contest with hard gloves. "I feel I can best him," said the professor.

'In fact, I know I can. He has said some disagreeable things about me which he never ought to have said.

When told of Donovan's words and willingness, Dempsey said:

"Why, I can lick bim in a punch. He is an old man—a retired champion—and it would be a shame to take his laurels from him. I wouldn't let him make a nickel from my reputation, because I won't meet him in public. What tell him he'd better stick to giving boxing

A well known club man has said that a twothousand-dollar purse will be raised to in-duce Dempsey to meet. Douovan in private. ENGLAND DEEPLY INTERESTED.

The Two Emperors Are Considering Asia as Well as Europe. BY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION. LONDON, July 23.—The most serious news which has come from St. Petersburg during the visit of the German Emperor is of deep interest to England and if true is calculated

The Russian Foreign Ministea, Von Giers, and Count von Bismarck are in frequent conference with each other and are very busy. It is reported that not only the European ituation has been gone over, but Asia has een taken into their delibration. In connection with these reports it is to be to cause no little uncasiness here.

Black Mountains on the northern border of India, punish the Akazais for the murder of Col. Battye and Capt. Muston last week. Gen. Boulanger's Downfall in Politics. INY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.1
PARIS, July 23.—Gen. Boulanger's decline n popularity since his absurd duel with M.

oted that the British Government has suddenly decided to send 10,000 men into the

His sweeping defeat in Ardeche as candidate for member of the Chamber of Deputies was cabled last night, and similar report comes from the department of D'Ordogne, where the General stood at the bottom of the Floquet was clearly shown in yesterday's

Concerning the Parnell Inquiry. IBY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.1 LONDON, July 23.—A motion will be made n the House of Commons to-night when the bill for the l'arnell commission comes up to move that the inquiry be limited to the authenticity of Mr. Parnell's letters and the charges made against the members named in The motion will have the support of the combined Opposition.

Samuel Waters, a married man, thirty-five years of age, of Willoughly and Nostrand avenues, Brookiyn, was seized with cramps and drowned while bathing at Rockaway Beach.

PRICE ONE CENT.

IS COL. QUAY A WELCHER?

HOMER REDPATH'S STORY OF A FARO GAME AT HARRISBURG,

He Tells the Pittsburg "Globe" How the Pennsylvania Political Alax Dropped 87,000 and Put Up Railroad Shares Which Were Not as Good as Cash-Quay, He Says, Still Owes Him $4,400.

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. PITTSBURG, July 23 .- The Globe of this city room one night and asked me to open a game for them. Quay called for $100 worth of chips, which I gave him, but he did not pay the money.

"Col. Quay is not considered a remarkable man in a faro bank, and if he does not display more judgment in the National Committee affairs the boodle will not be put where it will do the most good.
"The $20,000 railroad shares! I gave them up because I could not realize on them."

NEWBURG, July 23,-The remains of Rev E. P. Roe, the novelist, were to-day laid to rest beside those of his children in the cemetery of the Presbyterian Church, at Cornwall on the Hudson. Funeral exercises were held at the house and also at the church, where there was a Allong the dergymen who participated in the obsequies were: Rev. George P. Noble, of Cornwall: Rev. W. K. Hall, of Newburg; Rev. Wm. McMurdy, of Highland Falls; Dr. Howard Crosby, of New York, and Rev. John Teal, of Elizabeth. N. J.

A SECRET INVESTIGATION.

It Is Suid to Have Been Started at the Brooklyn Navy-Yard.

morning, by order of the Washington officials. Thomas Shea, a clerk in the provision and byt as no one was present to conduct the examination he want away again.

SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. I WINNIPEG, Man., July 23. -The excitement over the Skeena River Indian revolt continues and is more threatening. The Indians have attacked Hudson Bay Fort, and the garrison cannot with-Hadson Bay Fort, and the garrison cannot with-stant the siege much longer. Troops now on their way, it is fearer, with not reach the fort in time. The local imitis are prepared to start on a mo-ment's notice. Gen, and deton has been called on to quell this outbreak. The Metalikatian ladding are reported to be on their way to Hazerion to join the rebels. Those who know the nature of these Indians say that the rebellion will be much more serious than that of two years ago. River and Harbor Bill Passed. (SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD,) WASHINGTON, July 23.—The Senate has passed

It now goes to the Presiden: Fair, Slightly Warmer Weather, WASHINGTON, July 21,-Weather indications

The Weather To-Day. Indicated by Blakely's tele-thermometer:

We are still having a run on the back numbers of Monday's EVENING WORLD that contains your song, " Bring Back My Exiled Boy." SEND US 200 BY BEARER. The feeling of the public is with you, and YOU ARE FIGHTING A GO D CAUSE, AS THE DEMAND OF THE PROPLE FOR

New York City, July 12.

TOLD THAT SHE MAY LIVE

Omelal Information Not Yet Received-The

An Evening World man called at the Tombs this morning and saw the woman.

a sombre look.

She did not seem in much elation of spirits when the reporter spoke to her in Italian, and asked her how she felt. The pain in her

As soon as official news of the commuta-tion has been received at the Tombs, she will be transported to Blackwell's Island, Warden Csi orn says, and live her life and die her death an inmate of the Penitentiary. Since some ten years it is the law that females guilty of State prison offenses shall be im-prisoned in the Penitentiary, and not at Sing Sing. The reporter saw Mr. Howe at his office.

Mrs. McAuliffe, the robust and genial matron at the Tombs, who has felt great interest in "Carrie," was in very good humor this morning over the news of the commutation of the woman's death sentence to imprisonment for life. There is a general feeling among the officials that Chiara will mend rapidly now under the consoling relief which the news has afforded her.

Up to 1 o'clock Howe & Hummel had received no official information that Gov. Hill had commuted Chiara Cignarale's sentence to imprisonment for life. Sheriff Grant had received no news whatever on the point. A

Miss Eytinge to know what were her grounds for beheving the Governor had exercised this elemency. She declared that Col. Inger-soll had written to her assuring her that it

Open. High, Lose, 50%

New York Markets.

WHEAT.—December wheat opened at 92%c.—1 point below Saturday's closing quotation. The market was about steady, the quotation advancing to 92%c. by noon.

COTTON.—Putures opened unchanged. July, 10.64; Aug., 10.66; Sept., 9.80; Oct., 5.56; Nov., 6.48; Dec., 9.47; Jan., 9.53; Peb., 9.60; Maron, 6.67; April, 9.75; May, 9.88; Jene, 9.90, Market steady. Liverpool quiet, but steady.

COFFER.—Market opened from 5 to 15 points up, as follows: July, 11.45, Aug., 10.65; Sept., 10c.; Oct. and Nov., 9.75; Dec., 9.80; Jan., 2.85; Feb., 2.90; March, 9.20; April, 9.90; May and June, 10c. Market steady. Hamburg and have cables from.

FERSCLEUR.—Certificates opened at Saturday's closing quotation—5%c. Market was dnil and the quotation declined to 82%c., but before noon recovered to Saturday's closing quotation—5%c. New York Markets.

mile and one-sixteenth. 1r0 P lot

New York, 39; opponents, 35,

Boston at New York. Washington at Philadelphia. Pittaburg at Detroit. Chicago at Indianapolis.

Keefe and Welch are both in good form. President Day, Manager Mutrie, Capt, Ewing, Mascot Fred Boldt, fourteen years old, upon his arrival in Philadelphia, to the clerk of the Continental Hotel-"Is Mutrie here?" Buck Ewing's eyes are bright, his hands are is splendid condition, and, barring an accident, he good for twenty-five more games behind the bat.

The criticisms and the attacks penned by

The friends of Purroy continue to say that Police Justice Andrew J. White will be the State Convention. There was not much news or gossip to be

Alla Ru Leonidas Frade Dollar Duke of Monroe Second Eace.—For bea	115   Weaver
Pocasset	Lb.   Lb.
	Lb. Lb.
J. J. Healy	Lb.   Little Mickey 100

and the Hearing Goes Over Until Sept. 1 "Darby" and "Jack" bay There Is Nothing in Either Compinint - Pretty Justice Massey, of Brooklyn, was a half packed full of people.

many of the pretty girls for which Brooklyn

rgie. The young men were Jack Burdock and Darby'' O'Brien, who was christened

A dozen officers jammed the crowd into

O'Brien and Burdock were arrested at the close of Saturday's game. The former was charged by Mrs. Louise Jones, wife of a former player in the Kansas Citys, now living at Tompkinsville, S. I., with having by force of arm and unlawfully deprived her of her pet lox terrier Beauty, valued at $24, or, more prosaically, with petit larceny in stealing her dog.

She claims that Darby gave her the dog and afterwards wanted it back. She refused to give it up, and one day last fall while she sat on the piazza at the Nautilus Hotel, Tompkinsville, be snatched the dog out of her lap and boarding a train carried the pet to Brooklyn.

All of which Darby denied and demanded an immediate hearing. But as Mrs. Jones was not in court the case was set down for Darby says the the complainant in her affidavit avoids naming the place of the theft.

Last fall Burdock incensed Miss Lillie Brown, a seventeen-year-old clerk in the stationery store opposite the ball grounds, and she swore out a warrant in December charging that the ball player called her Justice Massey's term of office expires with

An Extraordinary Phenomenon.

No other term than the above would apply to the woman who could see her youthful beauty fading away without a pang of regret. Many a woman becomes prematurely old and haggard because of functional derangement. What a picy that all such do not know that Ds. Pierck's Favorite Priscription will restore their organs to a normal state, and make them youthful and beautiful once more! For the lile to which the daughters of Eve are peculiarly liable the "Prescription" is a sovereign remedy. It is the only medicine soil by druggists under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be returned. See guarantee on bottle wrapper. "."

Hundreds of Letters Received by "The The bobtail cars must be driven out of this been punished for manslaughter perhaps this semer this morning.

woman's death. Secretary McLean talked loudly and threat-ion of newspapers in response to a question by Assistant District-Attorney Macdona. He thought that they reported many matters which are untrue.

ficient to qualify a man to drive a bobtail car through a crowded thoroughfare, but the witness said that it did, and that if a man did not qualify after four days' breaking in he never would.

Duffy, the driver of the car which ran over eccident Mr. McLean said that Charles E Anderson, driver of car 32, flotified him at 3.30 r. m. July 10 and he despatched Mr. Connors, who was present in the office, to look after the case.

witness said, is under his charge.

Lawyer House objected to Mr. McLean's answering a question put to him regarding the number of accidents which have occurred

How Various People Viewed the Eclipse o Luna Last Night.

th at way. He then took from his pocket a lot of railroad shares, amounting to $20,000, which he said would make me safe. I advance d him chips as he called for them until he was "in a hole" to the smount of $7,000, "When he stopped playing he told me to hold the railroad shares for a few days, and he would settle with me. The next week I went down to Philadelphia, and saw Onay at the Continental Hotel, where he handed me a good-sized roll of bank notes. I put the money in my pocket, thinking that it was several thousand dollars, but when I went to my room and counted it I found he had given me only $500 in twenties.

"Some time afterward he gave me $500 more and again when I was in Ph ladelphia attending the races I met George Handy Smith, who knew how Quay and I stood, and he offered to indorse a note for me, saying that he knew Quay would take care of it. Smith then drew up a note for $800, which he indorsed and I signed. This I got cashed at a bank, and I suppose Quay attended to it, for I have never heard of it since.

"I again succeeded in getting $900, and Quay still owes me a balance of $4,400.

"Handy Smith has been trying to settle this claim, but he cannot get Quay to put up the money.

"Col. Quay is not considered a remarkable."

Laid to Rest Beside, file Children in the Little Cometery at Cornwall. ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

REV. E. P. ROE'S FUNERAL.

willing to meet Jack Dempsey in a ten-round large crowd of mourners.

A number of Grand Army veterans acted as guards of honor.

Among the clergymen who participated in Navy Yard complications was begun this

Manitoba's Indian Revolt Is Serious.

the River and Harpor Bill.

ant Connecticut - Fair, sightly warmer, followed on Taesday by stationary temperature, variable

UNSOLICITED TESTIMONY. To the Editor of The Evening World;

YOUR PAPER PROVES. Truly yours. COLUMBIA BOOK AND NEWS CO.,

publishes the following: Homer Redpath, who once ran a fare bank in Harrisburg, tells a little story about Senator Quay which, although well known by nearly all the politicians, has never found its way into the newspapers. This is Homer's story : "When I was running a faro bank in Harrisburg, Quay and another distinguished politician came to my for them. I said that I could not do business that way. He then took from his pocket a lot clothing department, who was arrested last Friday, was notified to appear before United States Commissioner Benedict this morning for examination.

At the appointed hour Shea was on hand,

